ELECTRONIC FILE TRANSFER AGREEMENT

At your request, Janssen & Spaans Engineering, Inc. ("Consultant") will provide electronic files for _____ (Recipient) convenience and use related to I-70 WB Centerville Welcome Center (Project), subject to the following terms and conditions.

Our electronic files are compatible with the following software: Civil 3D 2023 Imperial. Consultant makes no representation as to the compatibility of these files with Recipient's hardware or software. Data contained on these electronic files are part of Consultant's instruments of service and shall not be used by Recipient or anyone else receiving these data through or from Recipient for any purpose other than as a convenience for the referenced project. Any use or reuse by Recipient or by others will be at Recipient's sole risk and without liability or legal exposure to Consultant. Recipient agrees it shall not release or disclose any of the electronic files to any third party without written authorization from the Consultant. Recipient agrees to make no claim and hereby waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim or cause of action of any nature against Consultant, its officers, directors, employees, agents or subconsultants that may arise out of or in connection with Recipient's use of the electronic files.

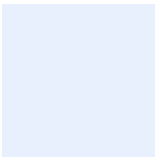

Furthermore, Recipient shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold Consultant harmless against all damages, liabilities, or costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and defense costs, arising out of or resulting from Recipient's use of these electronic files.

These electronic files are not construction documents. Differences may exist between these electronic files and corresponding hard-copy construction documents. Consultant makes no representation regarding the accuracy or completeness of the electronic files Recipient receives. In the event a conflict arises between the signed or sealed hard-copy construction documents prepared by Consultant and the electronic files, the signed or sealed hard-copy construction documents shall govern.

Recipient is responsible for determining if any conflict exists. If any errors are discovered in the electronic files, Recipient will contact Consultant immediately. The information contained in the electronic files is subject to revision. By Recipient's use of these electronic files, Recipient is not relieved of any duty, including, and without limitation, the need to check, confirm and coordinate all dimensions and details, take field measurements, verify field conditions, and coordinate Recipient's work with that of others.

Because information presented on the electronic files can be modified, unintentionally or otherwise, Consultant reserves the right to remove all indicia of ownership and/or involvement from each electronic display.

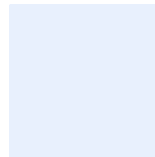

Under no circumstances shall delivery of the electronic files for use by Recipient be deemed a sale by Consultant, and Consultant makes no warranties, either express or implied, of merchantability and fitness for any particular purpose. In no event shall Consultant be liable for any loss of profit or any consequential damages as a result of Recipient's use or reuse of these electronic files.
